New Collections at Birnbaum Library

Virginia Woolf Collection

Thanks to the intermediary efforts of Dyson Prof. Mark Hussey, the Birnbaum Library has acquired a sizeable collection of printed material by and about Virginia Woolf, her husband Leonard, and their artistic circle The Bloomsbury Group. The collection features many rare and first edition books, some issued by the Woolfs' own Hogarth Press. Stay tuned for more information, as we hope to celebrate its opening to the Pace community and scholars worldwide with a grand ceremony.

Music Score Collection

Over the summer the Birnbaum Library was pleased to receive a donation from School of Performing Arts Director of Academics Larry Ruth consisting largely of Broadway musical scores. These books have been cataloged and shelved on the first floor in the Reference Area. Items from the collection may be borrowed for a period of one week. Also included in the donation were close to a hundred books on the performing arts, which will be integrated into our regular circulation collection.
