Test Print Pop Up Shop

On Thursday, April 19, the Birnbaum Library hosted Test Print Pop Up Shop, an event in the Collaborative Learning Room featuring Pace students displaying and selling original artwork. Among the 20 or so artists tabling was Birnbaum Library student worker Netzy Martinez. The more than 200 people who attended browsed and bought zines, books, photos and prints and enjoyed a nice spread of snacks.

We thank David Almodovar, Assistant Director of Library-based Technology, for his contributions, Prof. Derek Stroup, and the Art Department for co-sponsoring the event. The Library welcomes the opportunity to collaborate with other departments and campus groups.

Alumni Photography Exhibit

For the next few months, visitors to the Collaborative Learning Room in the Birnbaum Library will be treated to a photography exhibit by Christian Gomez and Dondre Stuetley, both members of the 2016 graduating class of Pace University. For more information about the artists, click here.

Stop by the Mortola Library to see the exhibit "Man's Intrusion Into Nature," a collection of photographs taken by students enrolled in "Nature Exposed," an interdisciplinary Art and Environmental Studies course taught by Prof. Carla Shapiro and Prof. Angelo Spillo.

Boxing Week at the Library

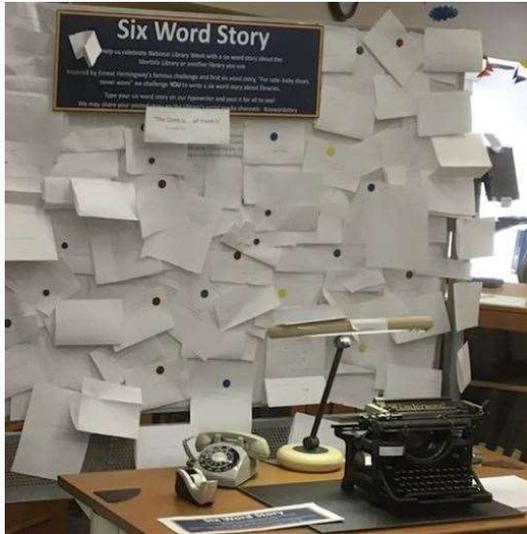

This semester the Mortola Library will provide boxes, tape and other supplies to help Pace students pack their rental textbooks for shipping. Bid a fond farewell to your textbooks! Boxing Week runs from Friday, May 4 to Friday, May 11.

Faculty Workshop

The Pace Library will hold its annual From Research to Writing workshop at the NYC and Pleasantville campuses on Wednesday, May 30.

Registered faculty will learn how to use the Library's research tools and services through classroom presentations and one-on-one consultations with Pace librarians. Registration is full/closed at both campuses. If you are interested in attending next year's event, click here for more information.

The Six Word Story

This month the Mortola Library hosted a Six Word Story interactive display for National Library Week. Participants used an old-fashioned desk and a 1915 typewriter to create a story of only six words, ideally on a research or library topic. The display was very popular -- receiving 178 stories! -- and students, most of whom have only used computers, were fascinated with the antique typewriter.

Stress-Free Activities

Starting Monday, April 30, the Mortola Library will host Stress-Free Week. Take a break from school work to enjoy coloring on Tuesday, Zen Gardening (bamboo plants) on Wednesday, knitting on Thursday, and puzzles on Friday. April 30 from 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. is Toast Day, the regular semester-end celebration of toast and toppings (both provided), and Friday, May 4 from 6:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m., is Game Night -- stop by to enjoy board games and refreshments. For more information, contact Steve Feyl at sfeyl@pace.edu.
