Date
28 October 2008	Google, publishers and authors announce that they have come to a settle of their dispute over Google's scanning program
December, 2008	Mass mailing and rights-holder notification process begins
5 January 2009	In order to benefit from the provisions of the Google Book Settlement, th Work must have a registered copyright and published by this date
April, 2009	Steinbeck estate and others ask for and are granted a four months to opt out of the settlement
5 May 2009	Original opt-out date proposed In order to receive the $60 cash payment, the rights-holders work must h been scanned by Google prior to this date
4 September 2009	Opt-out deadline- was delayed due to data system maintence scheduled Second Circuit Court on that date
8 September 2009	Actual opt-out deadline
18 September 2009	Department of Justice files statement of interest with the Court
20 September 2009	Parties annouce they are going to revise the proposed settlement
7 October 2009	Status hearing held. Parties will deliver their revisions by 9 November
9 November 2009	Parties request an extension on delivering revisions until 13 November
13 November 2009	Revised settlement is delivered to the Court at midnight
28 January 2010	Deadline to file an objection to or opt-out of revised settlement or would opt back into the settlement
4 February 2010	If a rights-holder would like to appear at the Fairness Hearing, they must an Intent to Appear by this date
18 February 2010	Fairness Hearing in New York City at the Second Circuit Court

31 March 2011 Deadline for rights-holders to claim their Works and receive any Cash pa due for scanning by Google prior to 5 May 2009

ment

ıe

ıave

or the

. like to

: file

ıyment